June 16, 1930.

Sir,

Reference to the attached letter of June 11, 1930 which refers to the arrival of Admiral R. Wakatsuki, Japanese Chief Delegate at the London Naval Conference.

Admiral R. Wakatsuki arrived per S.S. "Kitano Maru," which berthed at the N.Y.K. Wayside Wharf at 5.30 a.m. 12-6-30. He remained on board until 9.20 a.m., when he proceeded to No. 15 Seymour Road, the residence of the Japanese Consul General, and remained in that residence during his stay in Shanghai.

The following places were visited on the 12th. Inspection tour of the Eastern and Western Districts. At 7 p.m. attended a dinner at the Japanese Club. At 7.5 a.m. 13th departed from the North Station for Hangchow, returning at night by the 10.45 p.m. and returned to No. 15 Seymour Road, where remained until the following morning the 14th, when he departed from Shanghai at 11.15 a.m. aboard the same steamer for Japan.

Protection was given by the Special Branch No. 2, B. and D. Divisions, and nothing unfortunate occured.

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE
C. I. D. REGISTRY
No. I. O. D. 1358.
Date 17.6.30.

The Japanese Authorities through A.C. Japanese has requested that protection be given to Admiral R. Wakatsuki Chief Delegate at the London Naval Conference who is due to arrive at N.Y.K. Wayside Wharf on SS Kitano Maru at 6 Am ~~Wednesday~~ Thursday June 12th and will stay at Majestic Hotel to June 13 or 14. There appears to be strong hostility from certain sections of the Japanese Matron to the work of the Japanese Delegation.

I have instructed D.O. "D" Division to provide adequate guard in vicinity of Pootoung Wharf and Yangtzepoo Rd. A.C. Japanese does not anticipate any trouble once the motor car is well under way.

I have instructed DO "B" Division to detail two Japanese in plain clothes to guard the suite occupied by Mr. Wakatsuki during his stay at the Majestic plus one Chinese detective to be on duty at the hotel

A.C. Japanese will keep D.O's concerned informed of any alteration or modification of plans etc.
This matter is one of interest to the Special Branch I think.
